12.12.2017 - 30.12.2018

Last year, Museum Boijmans van Beuningen, Rotterdam (NL) acquired a part of the silver collection of Annelies Krekel. This collection contains representative examples of leading designers, silversmiths and manufacturers from the period 1880-1940, such as the studios of Van Kempen & Begeer, Josef Hoffmann, Jan Eisenloeffel and Charles Rennie Mackintosh. All important movements and moments from these decades, including Bauhaus, the Wiener Werkstätte and the Arts & Crafts movement, are represented. The collection can be seen in a temporary exhibition until the end of this year.
